LEASING TRENDS

Leasing rebounded 8.7% QoQ in Q1'26, though remained 24.3% below Q1'25 levels. Rent continued its slide, falling 4.0% QoQ and 7.8% YoY as construction recedes. Persistent rent softening points to a market still working through oversupply, with leasing demand offering signs of stabilization.

SALES TRENDS

Sales volume fell 11.6% QoQ in Q1'26, while more than doubling Q1'25 levels at 102.5% YoY. Average sale pricing surged 34.4% QoQ and 4.1% YoY. Declining quarterly volume alongside a sharp pricing jump suggests a flight to quality, with higher-value assets driving sales activity heading into 2026.
